David Marion Appointed Managing Partner at Smith Marion and Co. LLC

January 22, 2013—David Marion has been selected to be the Firm’s inaugural managing partner, effective immediately. Daniel Gregory, Firm Administrator of Smith Marion & Co. LLC, announced, “During the 2013 Partner Retreat in Palm Desert, David Marion was selected to establish the position of Managing Partner. As Managing Partner, he will oversee and administer the firm’s overall practice, management, and day-to-day operations. An immediate benefit of this change will be that it will allow the other partners to concentrate on working with the clients and staff mentoring.”

David Marion received his B.S. in Administration and Accounting from California State University, San Bernardino. He specializes in providing auditing and accounting services to non-profit organizations and government agencies. He currently serves as Board Chair of Arrowhead United Way and Sturges Center for Fine Arts, in San Bernardino, California.

ABOUT SMITH MARION & CO., LLP
