Smith Marion & Co., LLP wins “The CPA Shootout” Golf Tournament

May 21, 2014 —Smith Marion & Company wins the CalCPA Inland Empire “The CPA Shootout” Golf Tournament at the Redlands Country Club. David Marion, Peter Wesch and Mark Smith played in a four-person scramble joined by Smith Marion client Brandon Mageno.

Peter Wesch, Partner at Smith Marion & Co. said, “As usual, the CalCPA tournament was a lot of fun, with perfect weather and a beautifully maintained course at the Redlands Country Club. What made it even better, is that our team took the overall win for a second consecutive year. Unlike last year, which ended in a tie and win by card off, we finished this year two strokes clear of second place. Special thanks are due to our client Brandon, owner of Bid B Plumbing in Temecula, who filled in for Bill Smith this year and contributed mightily to the win.”

Smith Marion & Co. served as an Eagle Sponsor for the event, which helps benefit the Inland Empire Chapter Scholarship Fund. The Inland Empire Scholarship Fund provides scholarship assistance to students in the Inland Empire who, are pursuing a college education and demonstrate financial needs.
