Smith Marion & Co. Associate Cole Monroe, M.A., passes the CPA exam

November 4, 2014 —Cole Monroe, M.A., Associate with Smith Marion & Co., LLP based in Brentwood, TN passes all four parts of the Certified Public Accountant exam. The purpose of the CPA exam is to ensure that those who pass hold the skills and knowledge required to be licensed as a CPA. Passing the CPA exam recognizes the individual as knowledgeable of the accounting profession and is an advancement towards becoming a licensed CPA.

Douglas Englehart, M.S.A., CPA, Senior Associate with Smith Marion & Co., LLP says, “On behalf of the Smith Marion team, I want to congratulate Cole on a job well done and welcome him to the club. Passing the CPA exam is a major accomplishment that not only demonstrates your competence but, also proves your resolve toward success and dedication to the profession. Way to go Cole!”

Monroe began his career with Smith Marion & Company in August of 2014. He graduated from Middle Tennessee State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting in May 2014 and he earned his Masters of Arts in Economics from MTSU in December 2010.

Monroe is an audit associate and primarily focuses on Housing Authorities.

ABOUT SMITH MARION & CO., LLP

Smith Marion & Co., LLP was founded in 1983 by William P. Smith and David B. Marion. Over the last several years, the company has experienced tremendous growth. In November 2012, the firm merged with Streit and Peters, CPAs, a California firm. Marion credits their staff of high-quality, committed professionals, who have invested in their training, development and growth, to the success of the company. The firm also takes pride in the growth of their client base, which has grown mainly from positive client referrals. The firm is licensed to operate in California, Tennessee, and Kentucky, with practice privileges in Idaho and Utah. The company services clients nationwide.
